(This may be contained in the PCA.)

GENERAL NOTES:

1. All documents must be either original or copies certified as a true copy of the original by a commissioner of oaths or the equivalent commissioning authority, should commissioners of oath not be a practice in the country concerned.
2. The Affidavit must be dated within 4 months of the first arrival or departure travel date. The same affidavit will still be valid for the departure or return in relation to the same journey regardless of the period of the journey. The "first travel" date is the date of first presentation for travel at the POE for a journey that will be completed when the traveller returns or departs to or from the Republic. Minors who started their journey before 1 June 2015 would not be required to produce the documents if the return leg thereof takes place after 1 June 2015.

3. Different combinations of the travel cases could occur, e.g. when dealing with a minor accompanied by a person who is not his or her biological child, the requirements relating to divorced or deceased parents must also be taken into account, where applicable. Minors accompanying school tours must also be dealt with in terms of this category of travellers.
4. The following types of Court Orders may be granted:
 - a) Court order granting full parental responsibilities and rights (previously called "sole custody") or legal guardianship in respect of the minor: In this instance the consent of the other parent is not required;
 - b) Court order in which both parents are granted responsibilities and rights in respect of the minor: The consent of the other parents is required; and
 - c) Court orders that are silent on the parental responsibilities and rights: The consent of the other parent is required.
5. Visas
 - a) Where a child applies for a visa inside South Africa or at a South African embassy abroad it shall be standard practise for all supporting documents to be submitted prior to the visa being issued.
 - b) Should authentic visas be produced by the minor but any other supporting documents be unavailable, it may be assumed that all supporting documents have been provided.
6. Exceptions
 - a) A UBC should not be required in the case of countries that endorse the particulars of parents in children's passports, e.g. India;
 - b) Minors accompanying VIPs where Protocol Officer is present at POE. (No supporting documents will be required in these cases);
 - c) No supporting documents will be required by persons in direct transit at an International Airport.

Terminology

Annexure A

“Supporting documents” include the following:

- a) “Court order granting full parental rights and responsibilities” (previously called sole custody) or legal guardianship in respect of the minor;
- b) “Court order granting specific parental rights and responsibilities” (previously called joint custody) or joint legal guardianship in respect of the minor;
- c) “Court order in terms of section 18(5) of the Children’s Act, 2005”, authorising a minor to enter or depart from the Republic in the absence of parental consent of either parent;
- d) “Copies of the identity documents or passports of the parents or duly appointed legal guardian of the minor”;
- e) “Confirmation of Parenthood” issued by the DG in the event of an UBC not being able to be issued;
- f) “Contact details of the parents or legal guardian of the minor” (This may form part of the Parental Consent Affidavit);
- g) “Copy of the identity document or valid passport and visa or permanent residence permit” of the person who is to receive the unaccompanied minor in the Republic.
- h) “Death Certificate of a parent/ parents of a minor”;
- i) “Parental Consent Affidavit”;
- j) “Equivalent Document” in lieu of an unabridged birth certificate (Confirmation of Parenthood);
- k) Letter from the Provincial Head of the Department of Social Development where the minor resides authorising his or her departure from the Republic as contemplated in section 169 of the Children's Act, 2005;
- l) Letter from the person who is to receive the minor in the Republic;
- m) “Unabridged Birth Certificate” of the minor.

“Alternative Care” means the care of a minor in accordance with section 167 of the Children’s Act, 2005, which reads as follows:

“A child is in alternative care if the child has been placed—

- (a) in foster care;
- (b) in the care of a child and youth care centre following an order of a court in terms of this Act or the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No.51 of 1977); or
- (c) in temporary safe care.”

“Equivalent Document” is any official document or letter issued by a foreign government (including a foreign embassy) or a letter issued by the Director-General of the Department of Home Affairs, in lieu of an unabridged birth certificate and which serves as a confirmation of parenthood.

"Legal separation" unlike divorce, it does not put an end to marriage, it enables spouses to live separately but remain married. During the time they are living apart, they have a court order that outlines the rights and responsibilities of each spouse. Issues that can be addressed in a separation agreement are child custody and child support, visitation schedules and spousal support.

"Minor" means a child under the age of 18 years as defined in section 1 of the Children's Act, 2005.
Note: Marriage confers majority status on minors.

Unless the context indicates otherwise, "Parents" include adoptive parents and legal guardians;

"Parenthood" means the state of being a mother or a father;

"Parental Consent Affidavit" means an affidavit containing the consent of any parent who is not accompanying a travelling minor (Suggested format is attached as Annexure C);

"Resident" means a foreigner who has permanent or temporary residence status in the Republic in terms of the Immigration Act, 2002;

"Republic" means the Republic of South Africa;

"Travel document" means a passport or travel document issued by the competent authority of the State of which the holder is a citizen;

"Unabridged Birth Certificate" is an extract from the birth register containing the particulars of a minor and his or her parent or parents, as the case may be. In South Africa, such certificates are issued by the Department of Home Affairs in terms of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1992 (Act No 51 of 1992). In foreign countries, such certificates are issued by the competent authority concerned.
